"Love the Lord your God with all your mind."

I just finished reading "Comeback" by Dave Dravecky. Dave's courage is as strong as his 88 mph fastball in the major leagues. His story is one of strength, hope, love of family, and belief in God as he faces cancer surgery on his throwing arm.

This year's event will take place on the evening of Friday, October 30th and the morning of Saturday, October 31st. Here's a closer look at what will be taking place:

1. Friday, October 30th, 7-9 PM: This segment of the GEM event will take place on Zoom. We will hear presentations from Kerry Bender, NAB Vice President of International Missions, and Bud Fuchs, NAB Cross-Cultural Equipper. We also will devote time to praying together for our missionaries. Those who complete the registration form (see below) will receive the Zoom link in advance.
2. Saturday, October 31st, 9 AM-Noon: For this portion of the program, we will gather at Central Baptist Church (9419 95 Street NW). We will receive an update from Jeff and Sonya Kilmartin, missionaries to Cameroon. We also will hear from Jason and Erin Bergman, who are preparing to join the Camp Falcon Rock team in Romania, and Raffaele and Sylvia Gaudio, who will be heading to Japan. We aim to livestream this event for the benefit of all who cannot join us in person. Details for how to access the livestream will be sent to registrants along with the Zoom link referenced above.

Please note that all attendees at the Saturday morning gathering will be required to register in advance, to wear a mask, and to observe social distancing protocols. Due to the ongoing challenges posed by the pandemic, no food or drink will be served. However, attendees are welcome to bring their own snacks and drinks along if they desire.

We will be taking up an offering and are aiming to raise $20,000 to help provide for the Bergmans' and Gaudios' start-up costs as they transition to their new ministries overseas. Regardless of how much is raised, we will split the total evenly between these two families. All cheques should be written to: Alberta Baptist Association. Be sure to write "2020 GEM Offering" in the memo line. To give by e-transfer, direct your contribution to aba@nab.ca.
