

Lest We Forget
1Corinthians 1.26-31
November 11th, 2018

Introduction

- Why are memorials so important?
- Beyond honouring the people who died, we strive to remember the _____ learned.
- What is it that we, as Christians, are compelled to remember?

Main Points - We can live well by...

1. Remembering who we were: _____
 - This is God's pattern: to work in _____.
 - Romans 5.6-11
2. Remembering who we are: _____
 - election refers to God _____ his sovereign will to bring about his _____ purposes
 - Job 42.2; Jeremiah 32.27; Matthew 19.26; Luke 1.37
3. Remembering who we will be: _____ in Christ

- God has, in Christ, made us righteous, holy, and redeemed. His work; not _____.

God, in his wisdom, changed us from nothing to something and all for one reason: that his glory will be revealed in us.

The bible calls us _____ (2Corinthians 5.20); In our lives is demonstrated the -----
--- righteousness of Christ (Romans 5.19); And the _____ power of God (Hebrews 2.11); And _____ from the Fall (Ephesians 1.7)

Romans 8: 29-30

Conclusion

Remember who you were, are, and will be: a lost _____, but now a precious and _____ individual, who has been called by God to reflect His glory to the world, who will be _____ with all the saints in heaven

The Westminster Confession of Faith on election:

God from all eternity, did, by the most wise and holy counsel of His own will, freely, and unchangeably ordain whatsoever comes to pass; [Eph 1:11, Rom 9:15, 18; 11:33; Heb 6:17] yet so, as thereby neither is God the author of sin, [Jas 1:13, 17; 1 John 1:5] nor is violence offered to the will of the creatures; nor is the liberty or contingency of second causes taken away, but rather established. [Acts 2:23; 4:27, 28; Matt 17:12; John 19:11, Prov 16:33]
