

Commands for the Priest

Leviticus 6.8-7.38

February 17th, 2019

Introduction:

- We've looked at the 5 offerings
 - The burnt offering - general atonement
 - The grain offering - consecration
 - The peace offering - celebration
 - The sin offering - the necessity of the blood
 - The guilt offering - sins of indifference
- God has _____ priests to serve as mediators between people and God
- This passage concerns itself with one main question: what does it mean to be a priest?

Main Points:

1. God expected the priests to _____ of the _____
 - Separation between that which is _____ and that which is _____
 - Psalm 103.12
 - Don't go _____ in the ash pile
2. God expected the priests to keep the _____ of the altar _____
 - They had to make sure that the fire _____ went out
 - The fire reminds us of our perpetual need of God's presence and forgiveness.
 - We need Jesus, every _____ of every _____

3. God expected the priests to make sure the _____ were offered _____
 - There was a _____ way, a series of rituals that needed to be _____ to make the sacrifice acceptable to God
 - John 4.23; Hebrews 12.28-30
 - Take worship _____

Conclusion

- The role of the priest is to facilitate _____ between man and God
- In respect to the worship of God the priest had three distinct _____
- These things were commands; they were _____

