

The Economy of God

Deuteronomy 15.1-18

June 20, 2021

Introduction

- how does God want us to use money?

Main Points: we can honour God with our money by practicing...

1. _____

- There will be no poor among you.
- One of the malignant attitudes bred by money is pride. Be careful.

2. _____

- When someone falls on hard times do not take advantage of him
- What is the greatest commandment?
- Compassion and generosity go hand in hand.

3. _____

- Someone could sell themselves into slavery if they were destitute or needed to repay a debt.
- Galatians 5.1
- Let us demonstrate kindness to all remembering that we too were slaves once.

Conclusion

- We can honour God and others by exercising attitudes of humility, compassion, and kindness in our approach to people who are vulnerable financially.
- God's concern for his people is that they protect each other, not exploit the brother who is exposed.
