

There's No Place Like Home

Joshua 13-19

April 3, 2022

---

Introduction

- Why are boundaries so important?
- Acts 17.26-27
- Boundaries are established as early as _____, but there is mention of territorial land as early as _____

Main Points: Boundaries are important because they establish our:

1. _____
  - Possession / land
  - An Israelite could not sell their land permanently because the land belonged to God – Leviticus 25.23ff.
  - God provides for His people – Matthew 6.25ff.
2. _____
  - Tribes / clans / families
  - Jacob's blessings / words in Genesis 49
  - Our identity is in _____ – Colossians 3.2-4
3. _____
  - Where you find acceptance / love / support
  - The prodigal son – Luke 15
  - We're _____ yet – John 14.1-6; 1Peter 1.17

Conclusion

- We are not home yet, but we know who we are, and we know what we have
- We are...
  - _____ of the most-high God, maker of heaven and earth
  - _____ with Jesus
  - Loved and _____, redeemed and restored, ransomed and bought with the blood of The Lamb
- We have...
  - A _____
  - A _____
  - A _____ in heaven waiting for us, with God where we will receive our full inheritance: a crown of life, of righteousness, of glory
