

No Excuses

Introduction

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men -- Why?

Main Points:

1. Because we _____ the truth
 - The _____ of God and His nature are obvious
 - general revelation
 - written on our hearts –
 - Romans 2.14-16; Jeremiah 31.33; Psalm 37.31
 - the moral argument --
2. Because we _____ God's glory; we exchange the truth for a lie
 - the creation of _____
 - the first and second commandments
 - the allusion to Egypt
 - the Egyptians had at least 21 different animals represent various gods
 - but sin has consequences...
3. Because we _____ worship
 - the _____ fits the crime
 - the corruption of worship / temple prostitution -- God gave them over to their passions
 - we have to be careful about our words and attitudes:
 - all people are created in the image of God and deserve to be treated with dignity and respect
 - concerns about abuse and mistreatment
4. Because we _____ in the sin
 - The wrath of God is not an _____

...rage but a steadfast and absolute opposition to all that is evil. It is essential to the character of God

- the wages of sin:
- death, chaos, conflict, discord
- quit justifying – repent

Conclusion

- Why will the wrath of God be revealed? Because we suppress the truth, we steal God's glory, we corrupt worship and then we celebrate our depravity.
