

No Equal

Introduction

- Is God qualified to judge sin?
- What can we say about divine judgement?

God's judgement is:

1. _____
 - God seems slow to judge sometimes, but there is a reason
 - 2Peter 3.9
2. _____
 - Covenant does not convey clemency
 - Deuteronomy 10.17
 - Job 34 - Elihu's speech
3. _____
 - God knows what's in our hearts
 - God knows all things - omniscience
 - 1Samuel 16.7
 - Psalm 139.1-2
 - Jeremiah 17.10
4. _____
 - The behavior of the Jews was inconsistent, so much so that the Gentiles were blaspheming God because of their behavior.
 - 2Kings 17.6ff
5. _____
 - God doesn't get fooled; rigorous commitment to ritual will not avert divine judgement

- Cultivating our spiritual lives is of vital importance

Conclusion

- God doesn't judge like people judge or like the gods and goddesses of the Roman pantheon. God's judgement will _____, it will be _____, it will be _____
_____, it will be _____ and it will be _____
- God's judgement has no equal